In March, ILGA-Europe* and ENAR* launched an Appeal for an election campaign free from discrimination and intolerance, urging European parties† to condemn discriminatory or intolerant remarks during the European Parliament election campaign. ERGO* later joined the campaign.

An online form enables the public to report discriminatory or intolerant incidents during the campaign. This report compiles submissions received so far.

1. Summary

Out of 30 reported hate speech incidents against minorities, two thirds (21 reports) have involves implicit incitement to hatred, prejudice or discrimination, which is turning out to be the most frequent form of hate speech in this campaign.

Candidates and other politicians have most frequently attacked migrants, foreigners and asylum-seekers (over 5 in 10 times), LGBTI people (3 in 10), but also Muslims (almost 2 in 10). One incident in Hungary (p. 5) targeted both LGBTI people and migrants, and one in Sweden implicitly targeted Roma people (p. 12).

Finally, hate speech appears to remain privy to far-right parties: in two thirds of incidents (19 reports), parties without any European affiliation were at fault. When including all far-right European parties (the European Alliance for Freedom, the Alliance of European National Movements, and the Movement for a Europe of Liberties and Democracy), the total rises to almost 85% of incidents (25 reports).

One report involves an observer member of the PES (p. 6), and two involve full member parties of the EPP (pp. 8 and 12, see also p. 11).

We will continue monitoring incidences of hate speech in the context of the campaign, and publish further updates, including possible new reactions by political parties.

* ILGA-Europe is the European Region of the International Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans & Intersex Association, an international non-governmental umbrella organisation working towards equality and human rights for lesbian, gay, bisexual, trans & intersex (LGBTI) people at the European level. The European Network Against Racism (ENAR) is the only pan-European anti-racist network that combines advocacy for racial equality and facilitating cooperation among civil society anti-racist actors in Europe. ERGO is the European Roma Grassroots Organizations Network.

† The Appeal was signed by the Party of European Socialists (PES), the Alliance of Liberals and Democrats for Europe Party (ALDE), the European Green Party, and the Party of the European Left. The European People’s Party (EPP) expressed support for the principles contained in the Appeal.

2. Detailed reports

18 February

Austria

- Appeal signatory: No
- National party: Freiheitliche Partei Österreichs (FPÖ)
- Incident: Attack on the dignity of groups or individuals
- Description: Derogatory, demeaning or insulting language
- Victim group: Black people; migrants, foreigners and asylum-seekers

European Alliance for Freedom

Current MEP and FPÖ list leader Andreas Mölzer stated that the European Union was about to become ‘a conglomerate of Negroes, an absolute chaos’. He further stated that ‘it’s how it is, everyone, the Portuguese, Estonians, Swedes, Sicilians… are making fun of us, the Germans and Austrians. We are the only ones that start working at 9:00, and not only at 11:00’. He went on to compare the EU to the Third Reich.

Source: Süddeutsche Zeitung

Reactions: Ample public condemnation. On 8 April, Mr Mölzer pulled out of the election.

19 March

Netherlands

- Appeal signatory: No
- National party: Partij voor de Vrijheid (PVV)
- Incident: Implicit incitement to hatred, prejudice or discrimination
- Victim group: Muslims

European Alliance for Freedom

On local election night, party leader Geert Wilders addressed his supporters at the results evening for the PVV. He asked the audience whether they wanted ‘more or less Moroccans in The Hague and the Netherlands’. To this the audience chanted ‘Less, less, less!’ Wilders replied he would take care of it.

Source: Widely reported

Reactions: Ample public condemnation

20 March

Latvia

- Appeal signatory: No

Victim group: LGBTI people

Description: Former MP and list leader Christine Boutin described homosexuality as an ‘abomination’.

Source: Le Nouvel Observateur

Reactions: Following stern political reactions, including from centre-right UMP leaders, Christine Boutin admitted it had been ‘clumsy’ but didn’t apologise. The national NGO ‘Inter-LGBT’ registered a formal complaint to the police, as did 3,900 French citizens individually.

11 April

Latvia

Alliance of European Conservatives and Reformists

Appeal signatory: No

National party: Nacionālā apvienība “Visu Latvijai!” – “Tēvzemei un Brīvībai/LNNK” (NA)

Incident: Implicit incitement to hatred, prejudice or discrimination

Victim group: Minority language speakers

Description: In an interview, candidate MEP Edvīns Šnore said that it was ‘impossible to achieve cohesion in society, unless a big part of Russian-speaking colonists who settled in Soviet times leave. [...] That’s my understanding of a consolidated society [...] One cannot deny that most Russian speakers currently living in Latvia came here out of pecuniary interests’.

Reactions: There were no direct reactions. On 29 April, the government appointed Mr Šnore chair of a historical commission assessing the damage done under Soviet occupation.

14 April

Latvia

Party of European Socialists (Observer)

Appeal signatory: Observer status within a signatory party (PES)

National party: Alternative

Incident: Explicit incitement to hatred, prejudice or discrimination

Victim group: LGBTI people

Description: In an interview with Russian newspaper Izvestia, current MEP and list leader Alexander Mirsky supported a Latvian initiative to ban informing minors about LGBTI issues. He stated that ‘minors under 14 should be banned from any discussion on sexuality and to ban all public demonstration propagating unhealthy sexuality. Now homosexuals are going to the streets and what will be next, paedophiles?’
